Regulation 2.1 ONLINE MODEL COMPETITION "160 YEARS OF ITALY"

- The competition is open to all Italian and foreign modellers without age limits.
- The competition has as its theme "The 160 years of the Unity of Italy", it is open to all modellers who want to try their hand at the construction and representation of any model of aircraft, vehicle, figurine and boat belonging to the Italian Armed Forces.

The competition is intended to be extended to Italian civilization and culture in its entirety, therefore also to any civil subject or anything else that can uniquely identify Italy.

- Models of all categories are allowed, kits or self-built, in any scale and in any material, military or civilian, from 1861 to the present day.

Subjects set, dioramas and/or kits on any scale in line with what was previously expressed are also allowed.

The captured vehicles are not included in the permitted categories.

Die-cast and pre-cast models are also not allowed in competition.

If you have any doubts about the admissibility of a subject, contact us.

- Participation in the competition is free of charge.
- The organizers reserve the right to reject racist, xenophobic, or otherwise discriminatory and/or marked by excessive and gratuitous violence, or morally offensive works.
- The organizers reserve the right to move the papers to a category other than that indicated in the registration form, or to combine homogeneous categories in the event of a lack of a sufficient number of participants or models registered in one of them. Each category to be valid must have at least 5 subscribers, otherwise it can be combined with the most similar.
- Each competitor will be able to participate with a model for each category, with the possibility to compete in several categories.
- The models will be judged with open formula by the members of the IPMS Center of Genoa "A.S.C. Cynus".
- The organizers reserve the right to disclose photographs and/or videos of the models in competition.
- The personal data entered in the registration e-mail remain confidential and exclusive for the conduct of the competition and processed under the law Dlgs on privacy N. 196/2003.
